

Society
of European Contract Law
SECOLA

A European Optional Contract Law
Policy Choices

In collaboration with
KATHOLIEKE UNIVERSITEIT LEUVEN
FACULTY OF LAW

Invitation to a Conference

Leuven, 14 and 15 January 2011

Friday, 14 January 2011

- 9.00 Welcome and Introduction
Prof. Stefan Grundmann, Berlin / Prof. Ole Lando, Copenhagen / Prof. Jules Stuyck, Leuven
- 9.30 I. Due Process, Legitimacy and Competence
Chair: Prof. Ole Lando / Prof. Jules Stuyck
- 1. A Competitive Approach to EU Contract Law
Prof. Karl Riesenhuber, Bochum
- 10.15 2. More Choice: Less Certainty. How Questions do not give us the Answers
Prof. Ruth Sefton-Green, Paris
- 11.00 Coffee Break
- 11.30 3. The Green Paper: Reflections on Union Competence in Light of the Proposed Options
Prof. Kathleen Gutman, Leuven
- 12.15 II. Between Business Law and Consumer Law Due Process, Legitimacy and Competence
Chair: Prof. Hugh Collins
- 1. European Contract Law Reform and European Consumer Law – Two Related but Distinct Regimes
Prof. Geraint Howells, Manchester
- 13.00 Lunch
- 14.00 2. B2C, B2B and General Contract Law
Prof. Vincenzo Roppo, Genoa
- 14.45 3. A European Civil Law – for whom and what should it include? - Reflections on the Scope of Application
Prof. Susanne Augenhöfer, Berlin
- 15.30 Coffee Break
- 16.00 4. The Relationship between National and European Law and its Impact on Market Functioning
Prof. Giuseppe Conte/ Prof. Maria Rosaria Maugeri/ Prof. Marisa Meli, Catania
- 16.45 III. Consumer Contract Law First
Chair: Prof. Jacobien Rutgers
- 1. Good Bye Harmonization by Directives, Hello Cross-Border Only Regulation? - The Way forward for EU Consumer Contract Law
Prof. Christian Twigg-Flesner, Hull

- 17.30 2. Policy Choices in European Consumer Law: Regulation through 'Targeted Differentiation'
Prof. Vanessa Mak, Tilburg

18.15 Secola General Assembly

20.00 Conference Dinner

Saturday, 15 January 2011

- 9.00 IV. The Optional Code and its Philosophy - Pros and Cons
Chair: Prof. Stefan Grundmann
- 1. An Economic Analysis of Harmonization Regimes: Full Harmonization, Minimum Harmonization or Optional Instrument?
Prof. Fernando Gómez / Juan José Ganuza, Barcelona
- 9.45 2. Who's afraid of the Optional Instrument?
Prof. Martijn Hesselink, Amsterdam
- 10.30 Coffee Break
- 11.00 Chair: Prof. Fernando Gómez
- 3. European Contract Law: What do we want?
Prof. Assunção Cristas, Lisbon
- 11.45 4. "Choice is good". Really?
Prof. John Cartwright, Oxford
- 12.30 5. Optional Instrument and Social Dumping Revisited
Prof. Jacobien Rutgers, Amsterdam
- 13.15 V. Conclusions
Chair: Prof. Massimo Bianca

Conference bureau

Majo Werrebrouck
Study Center for Consumer Law
Katholieke Universiteit Leuven, Faculty of Law
Tinesestraat 41, BE-3000 Leuven majo.werrebrouck@law.kuleuven.be
Tel. 0032 16 32 53 24, Fax: 0032 16 32 53 14

Conference location

Auditorium Zeger van Hee – College De Valk
Katholieke Universiteit Leuven, Faculty of Law